

TEACH THE NEXT GENERATION OF NURSES

Combining two noble professions—nursing and education. UT Arlington's MSN in Nursing Education provides the knowledge and develops the skills needed for the creation and implementation of nursing curricula, teaching methodology, and evaluation strategies.

UT Arlington's MSN in Nursing Education was developed by a distinguished team of faculty who collectively have more than 100 years of experience in nursing education.

This degree plan addresses the growing need for nurses, by educating those who will teach and lead them.

DIRECT YOUR FUTURE

- Prepares the student for national certification (CNE)
- Learn simulation and other active teaching strategies

QUALITY & VALUE

- CCNE and SACS accredited
- Highly regarded reputation for nursing excellence

FLEXIBLE & CONVENIENT

- All courses available online
- $515 per credit hour*

APPLY NOW | 866.489.2810 | academicpartnerships.uta.edu/msne

*Spring 2013 tuition. Additional fees may apply; university reserves right to increase prices at any time.

NURSING COURSES

The MSN in Nursing Education program requires a total of 39 credit hours which can be completed in as few as 24 months. Courses are delivered in 5 or 10 week formats.

- NURS5301 Research in Nursing
Exploration of the research process and critical examination of published studies with emphasis on research critique, interpretation of statistical results, and evidence-based practice.
- NURS5327 Analysis of Theories for Nursing
Critical examination of philosophical and theoretical bases for nursing. Analysis of selected concepts and theories.
- NURS5328 Theory and Research Application in Nursing
Integration of theoretical and empirical elements of nursing research with emphasis on proposal development.
- NURS5329 Role of the Nurse Educator
Investigation of the roles and functions of the nurse educator.
- NURS5302 Curriculum Development and Evaluation
Explore the nature of nursing education. Focus on the curriculum process and its application to nursing education programs.
- NURS5308 Nursing Informatics
Focus on application of computer technology that supports the dissemination of healthcare data, information and knowledge. Selected software packages/applications are presented and used.
- NURS5319 Advanced Pharmacology for Nurse Educators
Study of clinical pharmacological therapeutics for nurse educators
- NURS5309 Teaching / Learning Theories, Strategies, and Evaluation
Teaching/learning theories, strategies, and evaluations for educators.
- NURS5318 Advanced Pathophysiology for Nurse Educators
This course focuses on developing an advanced knowledge base of pathophysiology. Principles of advanced physiology and pathophysiology and are applied to disease processes.
- NURS5360 Simulation Application in Nursing
Application of simulation and active learning strategies in nursing education.
- NURS5361 Special Topics in Clinical Practice (45 clinical project hours)
Advanced clinical practice with selected targeted patient populations.
- NURS5362 Nursing Education Practicum (120 preceptored hours required)
Nursing education preceptorship in selected healthcare sites with opportunities to apply clinical and educational knowledge, skills, and concepts in a guided, progressive context of nursing education.
- NURS5326 Advanced Assessment for Nurse Educators
Apply theoretical foundations and clinical skills in comprehensive health assessment across the lifespan as applies to the nurse educator role.

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

- Current US Registered Nurse (RN) License
- Successful completion of a Bachelor of Science, with a major in Nursing
- Undergraduate statistics course
- Two years of US-based clinical experience
- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or International English as a Foreign Language (IELTS) may apply
- 2.8 GPA required; GRE Scores required if GPA is below 3.0

ACADEMIC PARTNERSHIPS CODE

AP 4116

Note: Due to varying regulatory permissions, all programs may not be offered in every state.

Submit all documents to:
UT Arlington, Office of Graduate Studies,
Box 19167, Arlington, TX 76019

APPLY NOW | 866.489.2810 | academicpartnerships.uta.edu/msne

in association with

UT Arlington's College of Nursing is fully accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) and overseen by the Texas Board of Nursing.

The University of Texas at Arlington is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral degrees.

UT Arlington: UTA Box 19167, 701 S. Nedderman Dr, Davis Hall Rm. 333, Arlington, TX 76019